PREFACE

THIS IS the third volume of biographies removed from Who's Who on account of death. It contains the entries of those who died in the years 1929–1940. In a few instances the details are included of a biographee whose death occurred before 1929 but was not notified to us until too late for inclusion in the appropriate volume of Who was Who.

The entries are for the most part as they last appeared in Who's Who, with the date of death added and in some cases further additional information to bring them up to date. In a few instances the date of death could not be ascertained, and information regarding such dates is welcomed for inclusion in a subsequent edition.

With the first two volumes of Who was Who, covering the years 1897–1915 and 1916–1928, the present book should enable the enquirer to dispense with the earlier annual volumes of Who's Who, research into which for a particular entry may be a considerable task, especially if the date of death be unknown. It is intended to publish a further volume of Who was Who at the close of each decade.
